Activities of Korea Trade Promotion Center involve routine responsibilities such as answering inquiries of U.S. businessmen desiring to do business with Korea, researching export potential of Korean products, the market trends by commodity and U.S. imports. In addition we have on display at our office Korean goods and occasionally stage exhibits. On Sept. 21-24th we participated in the National Merchandise Show at the New York Coliseum. A trade mission was sent to South America accompanied by the Director of our office, Mr. S.M. Youn, for promotion of Korean products to Panama, Mexico, Venezuela and Ecuador. We also met with a UNIDO staff officer and discussed the plans and progress of the production adaptation and development project being co-ordinated between UNIDO and our head office of KOTRA in Seoul, regarding the Cloro/Chaplain Assoc. ceramic project. We met with the Korean Shippers Mission from Seoul and the members of the Far East Conference at a reception at the Waldorf Astoria. We met with the editors of the Import Bulletin who were interested in doing an article on the functions and services of KOTRA. A front page article appeared in the July 24th, '75 issue.

The undersigned swear(s) or affirm(s) that he has (they have) read the information set forth in this amendment and that he is (they are) familiar with the contents thereof and that such contents are in their entirety true and accurate to the best of his (their) knowledge and belief.

ANNOUNCEMENT

6TH KOREA ELECTRONICS SHOW

6th Korea Electronics Show will be held October 8-15, 1975, at Chang Deog Gung Palace, Seoul, Korea, under the sponsorship of the Korea Fine Instruments Center, a government-designated electronic industry promotion agency. The show has been timed to take place at the conclusion of the Japan Electronics Show (October 1-7). Record numbers of businessmen and electronics engineers from all parts of the world are again expected to attend the annual affair. Last year, the show attracted some 100,000 visitors, including over 3,000 from the United States and other countries. Among the participants were 150 companies from ten countries.

This year's show will feature many newly developed consumer and industrial electronic products ranging from radio and television receivers, communication equipment, computers, and calculators, optical instruments and medical appliances, to testing and measuring equipment, such as voltage, current and measuring instruments, and other items like vacuum tubes, integrated circuits, semiconductors, conducting and insulating materials, etc.

Advance registration not required. Visitors can register on entering the show. Admission charge - 50 cents. Applications for display space must be received by July 31. For further information call or write:

September 6, 1975

Dear Gentlemen:

We take pleasure in advising you that nine Korean manufacturers of gift and specially designed Bicentennial products will participate in the National Merchandise Show, September 21 - 24, at the New York Coliseum.

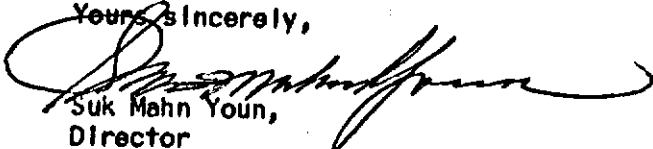

The Korean manufacturers will be displaying a wide range of these products, including bambooware, woodenware, toys, lacquerware, basketware, glass products, ceramics and accessories.

Representatives of the manufacturers, including members of our staff, will be on hand to assist you in every way possible. You will find our display on the second floor of the New York Coliseum, Booths 2226-2230.

We extend you a warm invitation to visit us during the show, in order that you can see for yourself the excellent quality and variety of gift and bicentennial goods, which will be displayed.

Looking forward to meeting you during the show,

Yours sincerely,

Suk Mahn Youn,
Director
KOREA TRADE PROMOTION CENTER
